

Raymond Berry is the Senior Vice President & CFO at the United Way of Pioneer Valley a regional non-profit organization.

In addition to providing fund development and community engagement support, Berry is responsible for the organization's fiscal, information technology, facilities and administrative operations.

Berry is also an adjunct professor at Springfield College. Berry brings a broad skill set to the United Way having managed operations in various economic development, quasi-public and service agency capacities.

Prior to the United Way he served in executive management positions at the local housing authority, a community development corporation and human service agency.

Berry is currently an appointed member of the United Way Worldwide's Financial Issues Committee, serves on Springfield College's MBA Advisory Committee, and is a board member for Partners for Healthier Communities, Black Leadership Alliance, Brethren Community Foundation, STCC Foundation and the local YMCA.

Recently he served as a mayoral appointed and city council approved Commissioner for the city of Springfield's License Board. In addition, Berry currently serves as a member of the city of Springfield's City Council's Revenue Committee.

Berry earned his BS from American International College, MBA from Springfield College and a graduate certificate from Tufts University.

In 2010 Ray was recognized by Business West as a top 40 under 40 honoree and in 2012 participated in the region's inaugural Leadership Pioneer Valley class exposing and engaging emerging leaders to the fabric of the Valley <http://vimeo.com/43463870> .

In 2013 Ray was awarded the Spirit Award by the Springfield Housing Authority and ADC Prevention Services.

In 2014 Ray received the Affiliated Chamber of Commerce Community Leadership award.

Berry resides in Springfield, MA.